

Cambridge CELTA Course

basilpaterson

Basil Paterson is Scotland's longest established centre for the Certificate in English Language Teaching to Adults (CELTA) - the world's most widely recognised English teaching qualification. Our four week intensive course provides you with a Cambridge ESOL accreditation enabling you to teach all over the world. The course focuses on the theory of English language teaching and the practical application of teaching strategies.

CELTA dates 2021

11 January - 12 February

22 February - 24 March

12 April - 14 May

14 May - 25 June

05 July - 06 August

23 August - 24 September

04 October - 05 November

15 November - 17 December

"I would recommend Basil Paterson to anyone wanting to do the CELTA course. It has been one of the most intense but enjoyable experiences of my life and the tutors will give you the support you need. Despite there being a lot of hard work, it was actually really fun!"

"I found the CELTA course in Basil Paterson truly rewarding. I've learnt a lot from my tutors, colleagues and the students that I taught, with support, help and encouragement from all of them."

"CELTA has been the most rewarding and intensive 4 weeks of my life. The skills and confidence I have gained are immense and I would recommend it to anyone who would like to take a step out of their comfort zone and meet the world's people."

Applicants should:

Be over 21 years of age

Have qualifications sufficient to enter Higher Education

Have a competence for written and spoken English

Have a position for teaching and learning

2021 Course fees- £1275

(Includes Cambridge Assessment Fees)